

Angels Passing Through

by Dwayne Redmond

Have you ever asked the question why,
Why certain people had to die?
So beautiful, gifted, and sincere,
Oftentimes, I wonder what they'd be doing
If they were still here.
I feel they were merely angels passing through,
Sent by God to leave a legacy for me and for you.
The memories that they left behind
Will always remain in our hearts and minds.
Surely, there have been many angels to come and pass through.
Some of them may have been very close to you.
This is dedicated to those who have passed through Heaven's door.
Unfortunately, there will be many, many more.
Let's be thankful in a very special way,
For the angels who are still living with us today.
To your loved ones...

(Poem from the book A Revelation.)